The story of toy trains in America during their glory years – 1945-1966.

For anyone who ever played with a toy train.
Hear the whistle blow. Let the memories flow.

65 minutes

GOLDEN $19.99

Introductory Price $14.99

Lionel and American Flyer – two names that are riveted in the memories of anyone who grew up in the late 40s and 50s. TM's new DVD takes you back to those happy times right after WWII when toy trains topped every kid's wish list. Sleek diesels, smoke-puffing steamers, log and coal loaders, milk and cattle cars – train boxes under the Christmas tree.

We interviewed collectors from all over the country, filmed their layouts, captured their memories. Fierce loyalties ran deep – and still do. Lionel dominated but American Flyer had their loyal following. So did Marx and Kusan.

The catalog illustrations made the trains look powerful and irresistible. You stared at the color pages and dreamed. Nobody cared if the angles and proportions were stretched a bit. Reality lived up to the fantasy.

TM's Golden Age of Toy Trains will take you back to the days when every kid wanted a toy train for Christmas.

Legendary Farmalls on Parade

Kids will learn about the main parts of a tractor and how a gas-powered engine works. We visit the Red Power Round-Up to see vintage Farmall tractors on parade. Watch giant steam-powered tractors hissing steam, belching smoke, and blowing their whistles. See Case IH tractors working the fields – cutting hay and carrying the hay to hungry horses.

This live-action, highly entertaining and educational DVD will thrill and delight both kids and grown-ups.

Finally, a show the entire family can enjoy.

Bonus Billy Steers teaches kids how to draw and paint.

Farmall Classic Films – The Early Years

Nine historical films, produced by the International Harvester Company in the 1930s, have been digitally re-mastered and enhanced to provide the Farmall enthusiast with a glimpse back to the early days of a tractor that has become an American icon.

TM digitally re-mastered the original films in wide screen, added music, appropriate sound effects, and made the films more fun to watch while preserving and enhancing the original content.

This new DVD features original archival footage featuring Farmall's F-12, F-14, F-20, and F-30 tractors, the A, B, H, and M tractors introduced in 1939, and many more.

A fascinating, fun look at tinsplate trains, in action, on spectacular layouts.

NEW! Tinplate Legends in Action, Part 4

Caryl Pettijohn thinks big. His train room: 3000 square feet. Standard Gauge layout: 2000 square feet. Switches: 76. Track: 2600 feet. Trains: 20 run simultaneously plus a motorized Buddy L 63-foot, 10-car freight set that runs on a 180-foot loop just below the ceiling and a Leland Detroit Monorail on a 63-foot loop. 12x60-foot freight yard features 40 turnouts and 700 feet of track storing over 150 freight cars. Spectacular Standard Gauge action. Longest straight-aways you'll ever see.

Dimitri Economides uses his skills as an architect/engineer to build a spectacular two-level layout featuring European and American Standard and O gauge trains. There are over 100 illuminated stations on the layout which is surrounded by back-lit glass shelves filled with his extensive collection.

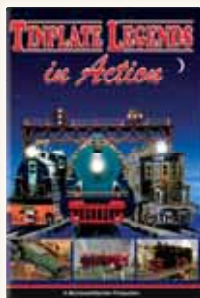

Clyde Easterly collects trains and Erector sets. "I love to build things," says Clyde. And he does, like a six-foot tall, animated Structo robot magician who does slight-of-hand tricks. His layout features Standard, O, and One gauge trains all running at once.

Designer Chip Foose works his magic on a classic John Deere 4020 Tractor

Building the Big Buck

The "Big Buck" is a classic John Deere 4020 tractor transformed into a dream machine by legendary hot-rod designer Chip Foose.

We trace the magic from the day the 4020 was delivered to Foose Design in Huntington Beach, CA to when the Big Buck was presented, almost a year later, to its new owner.

Known for his innovative designs and sophisticated style, Chip Foose is a living legend in the automotive industry. His work has been seen on the cable series Overhaulin', and in the movies Blade Runner, Gone in 60 Seconds, and Cars.

Chip Foose creates original automotive art. The Big Buck stands in grand testimony not only to Chip's vision, but to his ability to put rivets into his dreams. 40 min.
